Neighborhood Legislative Link. The City of Glendale Legislative Link program provides residents the critical information they need to stay informed about what is happening at the legislature and how bills could affect their neighborhoods and community. For more information, including how to sign up to receive regular updates, click here.

Shred It & Forget It. Glendale's Community Action Teams and Cabela's are proud to offer free document shredding to the community to help combat identity theft. Credit card offers, tax returns, medical bills and old bank statements should be shredded rather than simply thrown in the trash. The "Shred It & Forget It" events scheduled throughout the year offer a fast, convenient, drive-thru shredding service. Each vehicle can bring up to five standard-size file boxes of documents for secure shredding. This event will also include a safe way to discard small appliances and electronics. Bring computers, laptops, hard drives as well as toasters, microwaves, TVs or VCRs – anything that plugs in – all will be crushed on site! The event is from 7 to 11 a.m. (or until trucks are at capacity) on Tuesday, Jan. 24 at Cabela's, 9380 W. Glendale Ave., in the northeast parking lot. For more information, call 623-930-4030.

Glendale Presents the 2012 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Unity Day Luncheon. Each year in January, Glendale honors Dr. King and his ideals with a luncheon that brings the community together in celebration of King's work and the on-going efforts to promote a society that is just, peaceful and understanding. The luncheon will be held at 11:30 a.m., Friday, Jan. 13, at the Glendale Civic Center, 5750 W. Glenn Drive. This year's event features keynote speaker, Freedom Rider Jim Zwerg and emcee, ABC 15's Susan Casper.

Reservations for the 2012 Unity Day Luncheon are $40 per person. Tables of 10 can be reserved for $400. Seats may be purchased by calling 623-930-2050.

The luncheon is considered one of the state's premier celebrations of King's life and ideals. For more information regarding this event, visit www.glendaleaz.com/unityday.

Promoting Inclusiveness Award Winner. Randolph Stephen Elias Lumm, Maricopa Community College District board president, has been committed to ensuring educational access for everyone in Maricopa County regardless of a student's ethnic background, religion or economic status.

On Jan. 13, Lumm will be recognized by the city of Glendale for his dedication to diversity and inclusiveness. Lumm will join a prestigious list of Promoting Inclusiveness awardees that continue Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s work of promoting a society that is "just, peaceful and understanding." The award will be presented at the city's annual Unity Day Luncheon. Read more.

Glendale A to Z Debuts. Television viewers can sit in their living rooms and learn everything they need to know about the city of Glendale in a new TV show called “Glendale A to Z.” Produced by the staff of the city’s award winning television station, Glendale 11, the program covers numerous service-related topics from how to find a city park and rent a ramada to the do’s and don’ts of the city landfill.

“Glendale A to Z” touches numerous city departments with information such as how to get a library card, the process of getting a building permit, volunteering in the city and specifics on the city’s landscape rebate program. The show’s premise is a Glendale information directory made for TV.

“Glendale A to Z” will debut Sunday, Jan. 8 at 8 p.m. and can be seen on Glendale 11 TV at various times throughout the week. Online viewers can watch it at www.glendaleaz.com/video. For more information about Glendale 11 TV, click here.
